HOTEL

Located right in the heart of Havana downtown and just meters walk to the popular Malecon, this modern hotel is an ideal starting point to discover Cuba's vibrant capital city and its main attractions. Although it is recently renewed, the hotel keeps its original architectural look and combines the charms of a 1950s inspired decor with modern amenities and an excellent service that will leave no one indifferent. The accommodation units range from standard rooms to more luxurious suites, all offering a spacious and bright atmosphere with a stylish decoration. From Cuban dishes and Italian specialities to an extensive breakfast buffet as well as delicious cocktails, the hotel offers a wide range of dining and wine options that will delight even the most discerning palates. Other facilities such as a fantastic rooftop pool, a well-equipped fitness area and excellent business equipment complete the charms of this hotel and will ensure a truly enjoyable stay.
